GRANT'S POLICY AND CABINET.

[From the Cincinnati Commercial.]

Notwithstanding General Grant's reputation for reticence, it is well-known that he has always been in the habit of talking quite freely of matters that he was called to consider, when he thought the time to talk had arrived. It is not out of character, therefore, for him to be at this time expressing himself without reserve upon questions of public concern. That he has been doing so there is no question.

It is true that he has declared very plainly that, in his judgment, the tenure-of-office bill should be repealed. He thinks it would be impossible for him or anybody else to successfully administer the Executive office without power promptly to remove an officer for inefficiency or dishonesty, and that without awaiting the slow motions of the Senate. His idea is, that while there should be an end of the tenure of office bill, as it is, the civil service bill of Mr. Jenckes, of Rhode Island, or something like it, should be enacted. The general proposition is to make the tenure of office depend upon merit; to give greater security in place to competent and honest men; but to make the Chief Executive responsible for their competency and honesty. There are not many who will dispute that the President elect is in this looking in the right direction.

As to the Cabinet, it may be called certain that Mr. E. B. Washburne, of Illinois, wants a place in it, and will get the Secretaryship of the Interior; and there will be no mistake made if it is assumed that Grant sympathizes strongly in those peculiar and ardent efforts to save the people's money, by which Washburne's career in Congress has been distinguished, and which have made him hated and feared by the lobby.—Those best informed do not think there will be a change in the War Department. There is no more competent man for War Minister in the country than General Schofield, and he is on terms of the closest personal friendship with Grant. It is conceived, and something more, that Grant's Secretary of the Navy will be a naval officer, and Admiral David D. Porter is very confidently named as the man. It will be remembered that he and Grant were, during the war, long and intimately associated in combined military and naval enterprises.

It has been whispered in Washington that Gen. Grant, during his visit to New York city, has been sounding some of the eminent men of that place as to the Secretaryship of the Treasury. That he was at pains to gather opinions is pretty clear.—How influential those opinions may be is another matter. But, we may add, that the most weighty New York opinion favors Mr. David A. Wells for Secretary of the Treasury. That gentleman has certainly displayed extraordinary knowledge of financial topics, and honestly earned a national fame. It is certain that Grant will not look among the politicians for a Secretary of the Treasury, and that Mr. Wells will be backed by his excellent reputation and by zealous friends of high distinction.

Last and not least, there is something more than mere gossip as authority for the assertion that Gen. Grant looks upon Chas. Francis Adams as a man admirably calculated by education, experience, and temper for the management of our relations with foreign powers; and one well known friend of General Grant is quoted as saying that he "knows" the Secretaryship of State will be offered to Mr. Adams.

This leaves the Postmaster Generalship and Attorney Generalship, for both of which offices there are Ohio aspirants to fill; and our information does not warrant the use of their names on the slate.

We may mention, in this connection, that Senator Sumner wishes to be Secretary of State, and that Senator Morton does not wish to be Secretary of the Treasury.

THE PETITION FOR GENERAL AMNESTY.

We publish below the petition which, it will be remembered, was stated some time ago to have been prepared by Rev. Paul Bagley, and signed by Democratic members of Congress, and others, praying President Johnson to issue a proclamation of universal amnesty, and which was presented to the President a few weeks prior to the issuance of the late amnesty proclamation. The names of the signers are now for the first time given to the public. Accompanying the petition is a communication of Mr. Bagley to the President. We observe that the writer speaks of the Southern people as "once disloyal subjects," a phrase which, from the light in which they have come to be looked upon, may have appeared to Mr. Bagley very natural and appropriate:

To His Excellency, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States: The undersigned respectfully ask your Excellency to issue a proclamation extending amnesty to all persons engaged in rebellion against the government, who are now under prosecution or indictment.

COMMUNICATION OF MR. BAGLEY.

Mr. President:—In presenting this paper, of which I have the honor to be the bearer, permit me, in the name of the signers, and the millions of their constituents, to express to your Excellency the deep and abiding interest that is felt in the subject it commends to your consideration.

It is, sir, for amnesty we plead—for that amnesty without which it is impossible for a portion of your once disloyal subjects ever to return to their allegiance to the government.

And in making this request, sir, we come to lay down no line of policy for the President to pursue, but simply ask that he will pursue his past policy in this regard unto the end that we have prayed.

The eyes of the world have looked with amazement, sir, at the development of that policy of mercy which has been pursued by the President towards those whose hands were red with rebellion. While China has sent her ranks on ranks of rebels to the grave, while Britain has shot her Sepoys from the cannon's mouth, or Mexico has made a Maximilian her exponent of universal anarchy and blood, it has remained to this glorious republic to close one of the greatest rebellions in the history of the world without shedding one drop of the blood of war when once had arrived a time of peace.

And now, sir, believing that the President will be pleased to take this occasion of extending the amnesty desired, and that God will defend the right, and praying the peace of the President, the government and the people, through the Prince of Peace, I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant.

PAUL BAGLEY, Missionary, &c.

EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College,
GRANVILLE CO., N. C.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will be resumed the second Wednesday in February.

The Annual Commencement will occur the last Wednesday in June.

REV. T. M. JONES, the former popular and accomplished President of Greensboro and Louisburg Female Colleges, has accepted the Presidency of this school, and will enter upon his duties in February. His long and successful experience, his eminent scholarship, and his devotion to the educational interests of the South, forbid any word of commendation.

REV. C. B. RIDDICK, formerly President, is still identified with the operations of the Institution, and retires from the care of the Literary Department, only to devote himself more exclusively to its other interests.

LOCATION not to be surpassed. The celebrated MINERAL WATER an unfailing fountain of health. EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES complete. An extensive APPARATUS and LIBRARY. MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS new and of the best style.

Terms moderate as at any other school of similar grade.

Persons wishing to send their daughters will remember that we are on the great line of railroad leading North and South, within less than half a mile of Kittrell's Depot, Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

For other particulars, apply to
REV. T. M. JONES, PRESIDENT,
or, to REV. C. B. RIDDICK,
Pres. Board Directors.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. F. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D...Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. F. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. STJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNAS ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $5,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies,

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

DIGEST OF NEWS.

Cotton was quoted, last evening, in New York, at 27.

Gov. Holden has issued a proclamation ordering an election in Chowan County on the 12th instant, "for the purpose of supplying the vacancy caused in the House of Representatives by the resignation of Richard Clayton.

The Swiss laborers who are now living on the Atkinson plantation near Goldsboro' were the recipients of a splendid dinner on Christmas day, presided over and superintended by Mr. Atkinson in person. The Goldsboro' Messenger says:

"Altogether, these Swiss have been enjoying themselves very much during the holidays, and are perfectly contented in their new situation.—In this connection, we would inform the Standard's "informant" that none of their number had to "pay out his last forty dollars" to get this dinner, and hope he will make a note of it."

The Register of Deeds of Craven has issued one hundred and twenty marriage licenses within the past five months.

The Charlotte Democrat calls attention to the fact that if the Bill to divide the Charlotte, Wilming on and Rutherford Railroad passes the Legislature in its present shape, no man, who is elected Director on the part of the individual Stockholders, can be made President!

The First National Bank of Charlotte has declared a dividend of five per cent. for the last six months.

At a recent dinner in Charleston, S. C., Governor Sprague, of Rhode Island, is reported to have said that the best managed cotton factory in America was in Augusta, Ga. He is also said to have referred to the obvious fact that the South possesses many advantages over the North for the manufacture of cotton, and advised the capitalists of that section to spin the cotton into yarn, instead of exporting it in the raw state.

General Porter, of Grant's staff, had his pocket picked of $1,000 at the late army re-union. We didn't know that Butler was there.

After suppressing the Cretan revolution, Turkey threatens to gobble up Greece, that home of classic art, dear to every scholar. The only hope for the Greeks is in a contemplated flank movement of the Fenians, executed by Bro. Pepper, or in "marching" "Professor" Brewer back to Athens.

A resolution has been offered in the Texas Constitutional Convention to levy a tax of $5,000 on the County where any murder is committed, the money to be paid over to the heirs of the deceased. The Convention, at last accounts, was almost at a dead-lock on the question of dividing the State.

The following statistics relative to the progress and condition of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States during the past year have been compiled from the late st reports published in 1868:

"Dioceses 39 Bishops 49, Clergy 2,736, Parishes 2,412, Ordinations 266, candidates for holy orders 331, baptisms 85,702, confirmations 21 958, communicants 194,692 membersh p 1,100,000 marriages 9,945, burials 15 346, contributions $4 457,-808 28, Sunday School Teachers 21,711, Sunday School Scholars 194,046."

Sheridan has had another fight with the Indians. It occurred in the Ouachita mountains. A large number of Arapahoes, Kiowas and Cheyennes were killed, and their leaders—Satanta and Little Raven—were taken prisoners. Whatever may be the justice, or injustice, of the hostilities in the far west, it is certain that the Indians are getting the worst of the struggle; and, as might most generally makes right, it is probable that the complete extinction of the copper-colored race would excite no intense degree of commiseration. Such an event would be attended by at least one good result: It would deprive many white vultures of the prey on which they have long been gorging.

The citizens of San Francisco have formed a Joint Committee on the investigation of earthquakes, who are authorized to examine into the causes of their catastrophe and the best method of preventing a repetition of the great destruction of property in that city. Does the Committee intend to prevent the repetition of earthquakes?

The Hon. Taliaferro Pope is a gamboge legislator in Georgia who obtains shoes by surreptitious means, and rises in them to a question of privilege when the swindled shoemaker attempts to call him to account.

According to the report of the School Inspector of Chicago, there were six hundred and forty-three cases of flogging in the schools of that city in November. It appears also, from the report, that the teachers who inflicted these punishments had succeeded in reducing the business of whipping children to something like an exact science, in which there were five divisions, or degrees. In the inculcation of this science upon the children in the public schools, there had been, in the month of November, 300 "slight" whippings; 64 "medium" whippings; 200 "severe" whippings; 2 "thorough" whippings; and 77 blows with a club, or weapon designated as a "rule."

There is a negotiation pending for the annexation of West Florida to Alabama. The carpet-bag Governor of Alabama has appointed a Commission to visit Tallahassee and consult the carpet-bag Governor of Florida on the subject.—"Our" John Lemonade Pennington is one of the Commission.

ANOTHER EXTRAVAGANT SCHEME.—The Charlotte Democrat has the following, with reference to another extravagant and unnecessary appropriation contemplated by the Legislature:

"But one of the most expensive and unnecessary schemes is that which was killed at a former session through the exertions of one of our Representatives, Mr. Whitley, and now brought forward by the Code Commission with the hope of sneaking it through both Houses in that way. The bill appears to be intended for the especial benefit of the State Geologist. It provides that he (the Geologist) shall employ a host of officers and survey the boundaries of the several counties in the State, and then lay off each county into Townships, for which useless work each county must pay $300 and the State $25,000. Besides this, the bill provides for erecting a monument at each county town showing the due North, and for publishing and printing maps, &c., &c., all of which will bleed the Public Treasury several hundred thousand dollars by the time the job is finished.

And let it be remembered that these schemes for spending money are proposed while the Public Treasury is reported empty, and cannot even pay the interest on the debt already contracted."

THE DESPOTISM OF RECONSTRUCTION—GOV. WORTH'S LETTER BOOK—"JUDGE" TOURGEE.

Knowing that Governor Worth's letter-book in the Executive office would throw much light upon the infamous ways and means used to impose and fasten upon us the oppressions and enormities, by which the State and people of North Carolina have been reduced to the brink of destruction, we addressed a note to Governor Holden asking him to allow us to copy certain military orders and letters to be found in the aforesaid letter-book, in the Executive Department. The permission was granted, and to-day we publish one of Governor Worth's letters to General Canby, in which "Judge" Tourgee is well shown up. This copy was obtained from another source, and it was so good that it led to our application for others from the little-book itself.

It was Judge Tourgee and the thief and bulgar, Johnson, (Sickles' "loyal student,") who caused the Sheriff of Caswell to be arrested and transported across two States to Charleston for military trial, when Courts-Martial were being held in Raleigh, to say nothing of our civil Courts, which were open in every county in the State.

We call again on Clerks and Sheriffs—on men who have suffered under the late despotism—to give us the facts, in connection with their own wrongs.

We want the late Sheriff of Pasquotank, who was arrested and dragged from his official business and his home, to Goldsboro, to give the public an account of it.

We want the Clerk of Buncombe county to tell the public how the Bureau altered and defaced the records of his Court, striking out judgments which had been entered by order of Judge Merrimon.

We want the six farmers of Perquimans county to tell why they, in busy crop season, and in a time of profound peace, in the year 1867, were arrested, dragged from their farms and homes, from their wives and children, to the town of Plymouth.

We want the Sheriff of Jones county to tell why he was removed from his office and a carpet-bagger put in his place.

These crimes and enormities are not generally known to the people, North or South. Gov. Worth's letter book will throw much light on the horrors of reconstruction in North Carolina, and we shall have frequent occasion to refer to it.

Here is his slashing letter on Tourgee:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Raleigh, Jan. 9, 1868.

Major General Canby, Charleston, S. C.:

GENERAL.—Yours of the 4th inst. is before me, in which you say, "A. W. Tourgee has been nominated to fill a vacancy in a civil office in North Carolina, and would have received immediate appointment, but for the charges, affecting his moral character, made against him, by you, in your official communication of November, 1867."

[Upon representations made by Tourgee, and the felon Johnson, (commonly known as the "loyal student,") the Sheriff of Caswell had been arrested and carried to Charleston for trial before a Military Commission. In remonstrating against this arrest the Governor had represented to Gen. Canby, that Tourgee and Johnson were two "very detestable characters" in North Carolina.]

"With a view to the investigation of such charges, I desire you to furnish me with the names and address of all parties from whom you derived the information upon which your charge is based, and also a statement of any matters within your knowledge that may be of importance to such inquiry."

I regard this as a most extraordinary request. The character of General Washington is very good;—that of Benedict Arnold very bad. I am sure of this, and yet I could not give the names and address of all I have heard say so, and I am not sure I could give the name and address of one of them. I happen, in this case, to remember a few. I name B. S. Hedrick, holding a prominent position in the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, D. C.; H. H. Helper, U. S. Assessor, Salisbury, N. C.; Jesse Wheeler, U. S. Assessor; Hiram Worth, U. S. Commissioner, Hon. J. R. McLean, Hon Jno. A. Gilmer, Greensboro' N. C.

In addition to the above gentlemen whom I can remember to have heard speak in terms of disparagement of Tourgee, I have been informed and believe, that the following gentlemen know his character well and that they will fully confirm what I have said of him, viz:

Thos. B. Keogh, Register in Bankruptcy, Jno. Crane, Collector Int. Revenue, Ralph Gorrell, Jesse H. Lindsay, Jed. H. Lindsay, Jas Sloan, W. L. Scott, Levi M. Scott, D. F. Caldwell, Hon. J. T. Morehead, Nathan Hiatt, Jonathan Cox, Jonathan Harris, Cyrus P. Meadenhall, Robt. P. Dick Nereus Mendenhall, all of Greensboro', N. C.; Hon. Bedford Brown, Saml. P. Hill, Wm. Long L. L. Totten, Yanceyville, N. C; Hon. J. M. Leach, Lexington, N. C.; D. H. Starbuck, U. S. District Attorney, Salem, N. C.; Thos. J. Wilson, Winston, N. C.

I also refer you to the records of certain suits in Guilford County Court, at Feb. Term 1867, or about that time—Cyrus P. Mendenhall ex. Tourgee,—and certain cases in which freedmen were plaintiffs and Tourgee was defendant. I have not the names of the plaintiffs. The Clerk of the County Court of Guilford can furnish them. And to Major Worth, United States Infantry, Raleigh N. C.

A. B. Chapin, Surgeon of United States army, Raleigh N. C.

Thomas Burley, freedman, Greensboro, N. C.

You do not indicate to what vacant civil office Tourgee would have been immediately appointed, but for my charges against him, and therefore I am not called upon to speak of his fitness in other respects than moral character, to fill such office. I hear, from sources to which I give credit, that he seeks to be placed, by your appointment, on the bench of Judges of our Superior Courts of law, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Fowle. I think he has neither practised law or obtained a license to practice in this State. As your communication does not ask for any information as to his fitness, and as you have not hitherto deemed it expedient to ask my views as to the suitableness of any one of your numerous appointees to civil office in this State, I am not unconscious that any suggestion from me in this direction may be deemed obtrusive; but duty to those who placed me in the position I occupy constrains me to say that I entertain no doubt that few men can be found, mentally and morally, so unfit to fill such position. In fact, if I were called upon to name one for Judge, peculiarly unfit for the position and very disgusting to the bar and the virtuous intelligence of the State, I should regard the name of A. W. Tourgee as an exact fit!

You also ask me for a statement of any matter within my knowledge, that may be of importance to the inquiry

I do not know Tourgee personally, but I know that he was appointed, at a rural meeting in Guilford, a delegate to the political Convention held in Philadelphia, in September, 1866. He had settled in that County, soon after the close of the war, having been, he said, a Captain in a Company of Ohio Vols. He was reported in the New York Herald, as having made a speech in that Convention to enlighten the North as to the character and temper of the people among whom he had settled. I quote from that speech as follows. Speaking of 'loyal men who have worn the blue uniform,' he said, "I have here, to-day, to say that selling every thing they had at a nominal value, twelve hundred of these loyal men have been driven from the State. I know hundreds of these loyal men who were threatened with death if they wore the blue, and they are now wearing the gray," &c., &c., &c. "I was was told by a Quaker in North Carolina, as I was coming here, that he had seen the bodies of fifteen murdered negroes taken from one pond. Seven hundred loyal men had petitioned President Johnson for redress from the most dreadful depredations, and it was referred back to the disloyal Governor of that State, and came back to the authorities of their own town."

I believe, and the respectable people of the State believe, every statement in the foregoing quotation, was a malicious falsehood, made to engender and inflame the animosity of the Northern people against us;—and I know the last statement was false. The President had referred but two petitions to me,—the one from some 40 men in Camden county, representing that they had been Union soldiers, and that they were cruelly persecuted by indictments in the Courts of their county for acts done as Union soldiers. I requested D. D Ferebee, of Camden, then a member of the State Convention, and Hon. George W. Brooks, Judge of the District Court of the United States, and also a member of the State Convention, and residing in the neighborhood of the petitioners, to investigate their allegations. They reported that they had examined the records of the Court, and that there were only two indictments against any of them—the one for retailing Liquor without a license, and the other for fornication and adultery.

The other was a petition from Clay county, imputing oppression to one of our Courts in a prosecution for an offence of which he had been found guilty, which proved to be an equally groundless complaint, as all like complaints, how-ever investigated, will turn out to be. The Secretary of State thought proper to write me a note complimenting me for the manifest fairness with which these inquiries were conducted.

I have the honor to be
Yours, very respectfully,
JONATHAN WORTH,
Governor of North Carolina.

We know he said it.
And he's ready to make it good with his body and blood.

We had, on Monday, a visit from the distinguished Representative from Granville, John Ragland, Esq., supported by a crutch and cane. He called to tell us that he had said that the "members of the Legislature, who signed the Legislative Address, should be hung with a grape vine untrimmed."

Striking his crutch, with emphasis, upon the floor, he repeated, more than once,—"Yes, I said it, and d——d if I'll ever take it back. I said that they ought to be hung with a grape vine untrimmed!"

We told the distinguished Radical Representative, that we did not know how many enemies he had made by the declaration, but he had made many friends. Whereupon he named quite a number of distinguished gentlemen of Granville County, who had spoken in commendatory terms of his condemnation of the address and the members who signed it. Neither Dr. Grissom, nor Mr. Lassiter, however, were among the number.

Our Oxford correspondents must shed no more ink at the point of their sharp pens, against the body of John Ragland. He is a man of moral courage. We proclaim him a Radical hero. He is purged from all his sins. He stands proudly among his peers, to-day, on the floor of the House, though leaning on a crutch and staff, if any of the eighty-eight, who signed the address, should dare to justify its sentiments.

Mr. Ragland was once a great favorite with his party. He stands, now, almost alone, since this general denunciation of his party friends. We tell the Commoner from Granville to stand firm, and not be driven from his lofty position by party frowns or threats. If President Johnson had defied his party, as John Ragland has done, the South, to-day, would have been in a much better condition than it is.

There was heroism in Napoleon's old Marshal fighting with thirty men the vanguard of the Russian army, on the bridge at Kowno. The sight became more sublime, as the bravest of the brave retreated through the streets of Wilna, all alone, his face to the foe. Only a little short of it in moral sublimity is John Ragland, all alone, standing on the floor of the House of Commons, face to face to them, after having declared that eighty-eight members of the Legislature, who sit around him, should be hung!

"CHAWED UP."—The Mobile Register, edited by the Hon. John Forsyth, thus "chaws up" the scallawag who edits the negro paper there:

"Mr. Forsyth is very anxious to have somebody kill a few of his personal enemies."—Griffin's Nationalist.

"Mr. Griffin flatters himself when he places himself in the category of our 'personal enemy.' He is 'personal' to us in nothing. We know him not personally—hardly by sight. We have made it a point to know neither carpet-bagger nor scallawag personally. We regard the first as minions and pimps of our Radical tyrants, and the latter as traitors bought with lucre by our enemies. And we have been mortified and surprised to see that all Southern men have not refused to countenance or associate with them in any manner. Mr. Griffin is our "personal enemy" just in the degree that a poisonous reptile or mad dog is—he is the enemy of our country and people, because he is the tool and executioner of the despotic malice of our oppressors.—But he may sleep in peace, for we shall not hurt him so long as he keeps out of our "personal" way. We shall wait in hope that some patron Saint of Ireland, like the good Saint Patrick, may arise some day to relieve the land of the whole brood."

SENATE.

TUESDAY, Jan. 5, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names: Messrs. Barnes, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Epps, colored, Perkner, Graham, Hayes, Hyman, colored, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Lindsay, Long, Love, Melchor, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, Purdie, Rich Respass, Scott, Stephens, Sweet, Welker and Wilson—26.

Mr. Graham presented the credentials of Robert L. Beall, Senator elect from the 41st District.

On motion of Mr. Moore, of Carteret, the credentials were referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

The President presented to the Senate reports from the Commissioners of Burke and Robeson counties, laying off said counties into Townships. Referred to the Committee on Townships.

Mr. Brogden, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, to whom was referred a bill for the relief of W. L. Edwards, Sheriff, and W. F Taylor, Register of Deeds of the county of Greene, reported favorably.

BILLS.

By Mr. Brogden: A bill to place the county of Duplin in the 3rd., and Onslow in the 4th., Judicial District. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

A message was received from the House, notifying the Senate of its organization, and transmitting the following bills, to wit:

Bill to incorporate the Lebanon Lodge, Columbus county. Referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Bill to amend an act for the relief of P. T. Massey, late Clerk of the County Court of Johnston. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Bill for the relief of W. L. Edwards, Sheriff, and W. F. Taylor, Register of Deeds, of the county of Green.

On motion of Mr. Brogden, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Rich, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, Jan. 5, 1869.

House called to order at 11 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Franklin, of the House.

The Journal of the 21st of December last was read and approved, and, also, the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk called the roll and the following responded to their names, viz:

Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Ashworth, Banner, Barnett, Barnes, Blair, Boddie, Bowman, Candler, Carson, Carey, (colored,) Cawthorn, (colored,) Cherry, (colored,) Clayton, of Transylvania, Davidson, Downing, Ellis, Ellington, Estes, Farrow, Forbes, (colored,) Foster, Franklin, Gahagan, Gibson, Gilbert, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, (colored,) Hawkins, Hayes, (colored,) Hicks, High, Hednett, Hudgings, Ingram, Jarvis, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Davie, Kelly, of Moore, Kinney, Laflin, Leary, (colored,) Long, of Richmond, Malone, Mathieson, Mayo, (colored,) McMillan, Mendenhall, Moring, Moore, Morrill, Nicholson, Painter, Pearson, Peck, Pou, Price, (colored,) Proctor, Pruitt, Ragland, Renfrow, Robinson, Shaver, Siegrist, Sinclair, Simonds, Smith, of Wayne, Stilley, Sweet, (colored,) Thompson, Vestal, Vest, Waldrop, Welch, Williams, of Sampson, Wilson and Winslow.

A message was sent to the Senate, notifying that body that the House was organized and ready to proceed to business.

Mr. Laflin arose and announced the death of his colleague, Mr. Short, of Pitt, saying:

For the second time, since this General Assembly has had existence, the angel of Death has visited us—once in the Senate, and now, in this House, taking from our midst the well remembered form of my colleague, Mr. Short, of the county of Pitt. Sir, in both cases, these visits have been similar, striking those who were in the apparent enjoyment of the most perfect health and summoning them, without a moment's warning, before Him "whose hand causeth the earth to tremble and whose touch causeth the hills to smoke."

My colleague left here the morning of the 19th., reaching his mother's residence, in Nash county, on Sunday, the 20th. On Monday A. M., complaining of feeling oddly, he laid down on his bed, and then, without the consoling of his bride of but two summers or of his prattling infant, the spirit of life flickered but a moment, then went out, and all that remained of Richard Short was the lifeless tabernacle, which, but a moment before, contained his immortal soul.

My acquaintance with Mr. Short commenced in 1865. He was then, what he has ever since been, a man of honor, courage, patriotism, friendship, fidelity to his friends and country, devotion to the wife of his bosom and the child of their love.

We cannot but feel and deplore, with the greatest sensibility, the heavy loss we have so suddenly sustained. We cannot but express our heart-felt sympathy with her, who, that every day, anticipated a joyful meeting with him, by whose side she hoped to have walked up and down the hill of life; and, instead of meeting him, whose "heart had ever leapt kindly back to kindness," she was called upon to receive his lifeless remains.

May this impress us with a just sense of the frailty and uncertainty of human life; and, profiting, may we all be fully prepared for that which is soon to follow.

In conclusion, he offered the following resolutions and moved their adoption:

WHEREAS, This body has learned, with deep regret, of the sudden demise of the Hon. Richard Short, member from Pitt: Therefore,

Be it resolved, That we tender to his family and friends our heartfelt sympathy in this, their hour of affliction.

Be it further resolved, That the House wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Be it further resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent, by the Speaker of the House, to his wife and family.

Mr. Sinclair, in seconding the motion, pronounced another eulogy upon the deceased.

The resolutions were adopted, when,

On motion of Mr. Estes, the House then, in compliance with the usual custom, adjourned until to-morrow morning, 10 o'clock.

INTENSE VANITY.—Dr. Francis Lieber, formerly a Calhounist Professor at Columbia, S. C., but of late years a fanatical Radical in Gotham, was once addressing his class at his college in the latter city. His lecture was on the great men of history, and he ended thus: "Young shentlemen, da ish dree great men in history, of whom de first ish Mahomet, de second ish Charlemagne, an de zird my modesh-tie will not permit me to name."

Here one of the class bawled out: "His name is Franz Lieber!" and the learned gentleman made a low bow to the class, evidently in ecstasy at the ironical compliment that had been paid to him.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its compositions. We hear, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, first by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of the community, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character for genuine goodness in the severe affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a protection against the sudden changes of Spring, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Assignee's Sale of Valuable Real Estate.

THE LAND BELONGING to Dr. M. T. Ponton will be offered at public sale, by his assignee in bankruptcy, on THURSDAY, the 14th of January next, at 11 o'clock A. M.

The sale will take place at the residence of Dr. Ponton, the land will be put up, without reserve, to the highest bidder, for CASH, and no postponement will be made.

The land contains about sixteen hundred acres, is situated near the town of Halifax, N. C., on Great and Little Quanky Creeks, and partly on the line of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

The soil is naturally free and fertile, but has been much reduced by bad tillage. There are large quantities of marl on some of the land, and all of it can be easily improved and made good Corn and Cotton land. Much of it is well adapted to truck farming, and nearly the whole of it is equal to any in America for the cultivation of the grape. To any person who desires to invest capital in "Grape Culture," no better opportunity can be offered.

The land will be sold in several separate tracts in one of which there is the best mill site in Halifax county, affording an inexhaustible supply of water power, with building stone sufficient for the erection of dams and mills.

Dr. Ponton will take pleasure in guiding persons over the land, who may wish to inspect it with a view to purchase.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the aromatic cremant, gave it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1859; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their

THE SUPREME COURT.

The Court met in the old rooms, on yesterday, at the usual hour,—the Chief Justice and all the Associate Justices present, and the old Pilgrim and Cape-Codder occupying one corner of the room. The "situation" is unchanged, we believe, and Ashley "sticks," as Sumner said to Stanton.—There are rumors that the attachment for contempt will yet be served, but still other rumors that the Court is getting weak-kneed.

The Court has not gone into the election of Clerk, Reporter, Marshal or Librarian.

The following gentlemen have been examined and licensed to practice, viz:

Geo. H. Snow, Raleigh.
J. A. Jones, Wake.
Charles M. Wesson, Northampton.
Erasmus D. Scales, Rockingham.
Jno. A. Moore, Chowan.
James M. Mullen, Perquimans.
Robt. W. Means, Cabarrus.
Benj. J. Bullock, Jr. Franklin.
W. H. Burgess, Northampton.

Mr. Fabius H. Busbee, of Wake, Mr. Ike R. Strayhorn, of Orange, and Mr. James H. Harper, of Caldwell, passed an approved examination at last June Term, and were licensed to practice in all the Courts of the State, on yesterday.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—We despair, under the existing condition of things, of ever having again a free and fair election in the South. Of all the bold, brazen election frauds ever yet perpetrated, those on Monday are, perhaps, entitled to the premium. We have never known or conceived of anything like them before. The unblushing effrontery and openness with which they were perpetrated would actually have been amusing, if it were not for the serious consequences to the City and for the terrible demoralization which such exhibitions indicate.

We think that it would be well to have an example made, (if such a thing is possible anywhere under the present Radical regime,) of some of the more glaring offenders—both those who instigated and those who committed perjury. The names of some of each class are known. We have before us, this moment, the certificate of registration, on election day, of Isam Battle, a negro, who is known to have resided two miles Northwest of the City, at Daniel Gouch's, for several years past, and who is now living there. We learn that he informed Mr. Gouch that he was paid one dollar to vote in the Western Ward. We hope that Isam will be made to tell who paid him the one dollar, and that the suborner of perjury may be first dealt with.

We shall produce other names in due time.

OMISSION.—We inadvertently omitted to give, in summing up the result of the Municipal election, the vote received by Douglas Bell, Esq. Mr. B. received 77 votes,—the largest vote received by any of the unsuccessful candidates in the Middle Ward.

MAJ. W. M. ROBBINS is detained from his seat in the Senate by domestic affliction.

BRO. PEPPER, the Reverend Fenian who writes for the Standard, thinks the howling of the negro rabble on the streets, on the night of the municipal election, was like the answering of the King of Israel to the hosts of Ben hadad. Can't somebody teach Bro. Pepper not to make himself ridiculous? People laugh at him.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION AT COMPANY SHOPS. The anti ticket carried the day, in the election at Company Shops, on Monday. Party issues were not brought to bear,—the question being "sperits or no sperits."—Col. A. C. McAllister was elected Mayor, and Messrs. Thomas Robertson, C. Davis, Thos. Sellers, J. R. Murphy, and Jno. Lane (negro) Commissioners.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION IN HILLSBORO.—At the Charter election in Hillsboro, on Monday, A. G. Murdock, Esq., was elected Mayor, and Messrs. Pogue, Dickson, Whitted, Corbin, Cooley and D. C. Parks, Commissioners. For the seventh Commissioner, there was a tie between Messrs. Reese, Webb and C. Parks,—each receiving 77 votes.

THE TEMPLETON TROUPE.—This Company, it will be seen, give two entertainments in this city, commencing on Thursday evening. It is spoken of in high terms by our cotemporaries of the Press, and is doubtless fully up to the commendation bestowed. The last Wilmington Journal says:

"The Templeton troupe made their appearance for the first time this season at Thalian Hall last night. The house was crowded and very complimentary to the troupe. Mazeppa was the piece rendered, and the performance was good. The different members of the troupe acquitted themselves with credit. The impersonation of Mazeppa by Miss Raymond was very good, and the scenes with the horse passed off in admirable manner, without that awkwardness often so apparent. Miss Alice Vane sang and looked charmingly, and Mr. Webster's comic acting elicited much laughter. The tableaux were put upon the stage with good effect, eliciting enthusiastic applause. The performance was a decided success, and we can recommend the company to our people."

VIRGINIA.

The following are the Resolutions adopted at the recent Conference, in Richmond, of leading men of Virginia:

"The undersigned, residents of different parts of Virginia, having, upon invitation of some of their own number, assembled in Richmond for the purpose of holding a conference in regard to the present imperilled condition of the Commonwealth, after a full interchange of opinions, have come to the following conclusions, which they respectfully submit to the calm and patriotic judgment of their countrymen.

1. While the convictions of the undersigned, and as they believe of the people of Virginia, generally remain unchanged, that the freedmen of the Southern States, in their present uneducated condition, are not prepared for the intelligent exercise of the elective franchise, and the performance of other duties connected with public affairs, and are, therefore, at this time, unsafe depositaries of political power; yet, in view of the verdict of public opinion in favor of their being allowed to exercise the right of suffrage as expressed in the recent elections, the undersigned are prepared, and they believe the majority of the people of Virginia are prepared, to surrender their opposition to its incorporation into her fundamental law, as an offering on the altar of peace, and in the hope that union and harmony may be restored on the basis of universal suffrage and universal amnesty.

2. To give effect to this purpose, and to spare no effort to effect a speedy and permanent restoration of union and harmonious relations between the portions of our country which have been for some years past alienated, the undersigned will appoint a committee of nine members from different parts of the State, and reflecting, as far as may be practicable, the public sentiment of the State, whose duty it shall be, at an early day, to proceed to Washington and be authorized to make known the views and purposes hereby declared to the Congress of the United States, and to take such measures as they may think proper to aid in obtaining from that body such legislation concerning the organic law of Virginia as Congress in its wisdom may deem expedient and best under all the circumstances.—The delegation so to be constituted may fill vacancies, and are authorized to enlarge their number in their discretion.

3. The undesigned recommend to the people of Virginia, by primary meetings, to appoint delegates to a popular convention to be held in Richmond, on Wednesday, the 10th day of February, 1869, to receive the report of the committee appointed by the foregoing resolutions, and adopt such other measures as may be deemed expedient to promote the objects herein advocated.

MODIFICATION OF THE CIVIL TENURE BILL. There is no doubt an attempt will be made to modify the Civil Tenure bill so as to include what General Grant professes to want and not relinquish what Congress affects to consider sacred. The proposed change leave the President absolute power to remove Cabinet officers at pleasure, though successors will be subject to the chances of confirmation. It, however, nominees should not be offered at once, or, if offered, rejected, the President is at liberty in the meantime to designate the official next in rank in the same department, or any other member of the Cabinet, to discharge the duties of the vacant place until a successor is duly qualified. This is intended to prevent any such contingency as made Stanton "stick" and put General Grant under a cloud of conspicuous inexactness. The second and most important proposed amendment is to alter the method of change of officials which now is only a suspension of the incumbents and a designation of ad interim successors, who serve legally without pay until the reasons for the removal of the original officials are passed upon by the Senate. These reasons are to be submitted to the Senate within twenty days after their re-assembling. If they are sustained, the official complained of goes out, the ad interim incumbent draws pay for as long as he has been in, and a successor to the man removed is qualified by nomination and confirmation. If the charges are not sustained the official resumes, as Stanton did, the office from which he was suspended. The change in this respect proposed is that officers may be suspended, their pay to stop from date of suspension for cause, ad interim incumbents may be appointed to hold the forty days after the reassembling of the Senate. These incumbents will draw pay as long as they hold. When Congress reassembles, the President, within twenty days thereafter, is to inform the Senate of the suspension of the ad interim incumbent, and recite as ground of suspension merely for cause, at the same time nominating a successor, as for instance: I suspended on July 4, J. H. Bailey, Collector of Revenue in the Fourth District of New York, for cause; appointed John Smith to the office ad interim, and hereby nominate John Smith to succeed S. H. Bailey. It is further proposed that if within twenty more days officers so suspended for cause fail to demand an investigation, then the successors shall be qualified by confirmation. If they demand investigation the President shall file charges and these shall be tried as at present. If the charges are sustained of course the man goes out. If not sustained he resumes office and his back pay is to be met out of the contingent fund. This change merely assures pay in any event to ad interim incumbents, and puts the onus of demanding an investigation upon the person suspended.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World

REV. DR. CHAS. F. DEEMS, of this city, is engaged to lecture quite extensively, this season, in different parts of the country. He is one of the few really successful lecturers in the field; the subjects he discusses, his peculiar habits of thought, and style of delivery, eminently fitting him to enchain the attention of an audience. He never indulges in long winded tirades, nor tedious inflections of dignified dullness, but addresses himself direct to the heart, experience, and interests of men, as involved in the urgent problems of every day life. His style of delivery is rapid, vivacious, combining power with great delicacy and tenderness. His thoughts and views are marked by unusual freshness, boldness, and originality; and they are so weighed with pith and practical applicability to every man's consciousness, and so lighted up with the play of wit and humor, that no hearer, however listless, can possibly find him tedious. Dr. Deems' present address is 300 East Twelfth street, New York city.—The following are the subjects of his lectures:—"Husbands and Wives," Proverbs—Not Solomon's," "Trifles," "Unnatural Culture," "A Plea for the Money Makers," "Ethics and Poetry of Trade Life."—*N. It is situated a mile from Hester's Store, two miles from Bushy Fork, N. C., and near the semi-weekly Mail Line from Hillsboro', on the N. C. railroad, via Lonsburg and Milton, to Ringgold, on the Richmond & Danville Railroad. Pupils coming by Train, either way, or from the Eastern or Western part of the State will be furnished with conveyance by the Mail Agent at Hillsboro' to T. H. Fuller's, Esq., who will send them a distance of 3 miles to the Academy.

The neighborhood is pleasant and healthy—the community noted for its morality, there being Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches in the vicinity ready of access. Pupils will be required to attend Preaching on the Sabbath.

TERMS PER SESSION OF 20 WEEKS:

Tuition in Primary Department,	$10
Higher English,	15
Latin and Greek each,	5

☞ Maimed soldiers will be charged only half the ordinary price of Tuition.

Pupils will be received any time during the session and charged till the expiration of the same. No other deduction made except in cases of protracted sickness.

Boys can be prepared for College or the business pursuits of life.

Board, with good families, convenient to the Academy at $10 per month, including Washing, Fuel and Lights

The last School year closed the 13th November, forty five students having been enrolled during that time. Competent Assistants will be employed, if necessary.

Patrons are solicited to visit the School frequently and see how the Pupils progress.

WASHINGTON, 5, P. M.

In view of the questioned unity of Mr. Johnson's Amnesty Proclamation following verbiage from Mr. Lincoln's proclamation, dated Dec. 8, 1863, is important:

"Whereas in and by the Coction of the United States, it is provided the President shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offences against the United States, except in cases of impeachment, &c.; whereas the Congressional declaration of Con for a limited and conditional pardon accord with the established judicial exposition of pardoning power, &c."

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,949.68.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over SIX Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life-Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

My Old Woman and I

We have crossed the bridge of the middle of life,
My old woman and I,
Taking our share in the calm and the strife,
With the travelers passing by;
And though on our pathway the shadows are rife,
There's a light in the western sky.

Some losses and crosses, of course, we've had,
My old woman and I;
But, bless you! we never found time to be sad,
And a very good reason why:
We were busy as bees, and we weren't so mad
As to stop in our work to cry.

On our changeable road as we journeyed along,
My old woman and I,
The kindly companions we met in the throng
Made our lives like a vision fly;
And therefore the few that imagined us wrong
Scarcely cost us a single sigh.

The weak and the weary we've striven to cheer,
My old woman and I;
For we each of us thought our duty while here
Was to do it: we'd be done by,
In the hope to exhibit a balance clear
When the reckoning day is nigh.

ARKANSAS.

THE OUTRAGES OF THE NEGRO MILITIA.

The Memphis Ledger publishes the following account of the sacking of Augusta, Arkansas:

PEABODY HOTEL, MEMPHIS, TENN., December 25, 1868.

My name is John Monroe; I am a Canadian by birth; I never served either in the army of the United States or the Confederate States; I am twenty-two years old; have resided in Augusta, Woodruff county, Arkansas, since 1865; have been engaged with my brother in making, buying and selling harness, saddlery, &c.; I was in Augusta when the militia, under the command of Brigadier General Upham, came to the place, on the morning of the 7th. of December, nearly one hundred strong; when I left, on Friday, the 18th. they were about two hundred and fifty strong. As soon as they arrived they took possession of the telegraph office, and would not permit any communication to be sent over the lines.—They surrounded all business houses, and demanded all guns, arms of all kinds, and ammunition; they then entered the stores and took all kinds of goods—dry goods, clothing, groceries, provisions, &c.—without paying or offering to pay for them; private soldiers without officers, and men who claimed to be officers, took goods of every kind, without orders; they took women's clothing, shoes, bonnets, &c., and I heard took the rings off a lady's hand. They took from us saddles, bridles, spurs, saddle-bags, and other articles in our line—about twelve hundred and fifty dollars; men came in and got what they wanted, without orders. We kept an account of the articles, and afterward got a receipt for them. They took some horses that I know of, and I heard that they took others.—They seized several citizens and held them as prisoners, confining them under guard in a brick building in town. Among those that I know taken were J. R. Jelks, C. T. Pettit, Dr. McKenzie, A. W. White, John Tharpe, B. Connor, Maj. McRoy, John Sorrels, C. C. Tyree, John Corley, Nat. Gregory, E. M. Shuttleworth, and others whose names I do not recollect. Mr. J. Tharpe was confined in prison on one of the coldest nights of this year; would permit him no covering, nor his friends to furnish him with food, in consequence he was badly frostbitten. I heard some of the men say that they had powder under the house in which the prisoners were confined, and if attacked they would blow up the house with the prisoners, and burn the town.—They made preparations to burn the town, and seized cotton and barricaded the streets. Before the militia came the people of the town and surrounding country were quiet—no disturbances were occurring.—After they took possession of the town and committed the outrages I have narrated, I learn that about forty men collected outside and fired upon the pickets. I am broken up in business by the acts of the militia, and I have left the place—at least for a time. All business had ceased, as people from the country could not bring in their produce to sell without danger of being robbed and insulted, and the merchants had ordered their goods stopped at Memphis, or delivered at other points on the river, and some sent off what goods General Upham would permit them to ship.

JOHN MONROE.

I reside at Augusta, and know the young gentleman who made the above statements to be strictly truthful. I left Augusta on the 8th. inst., and know personally that several citizens had been arrested, and that the merchants were robbed as stated by Mr. Monroe. Since that time (8th. instant) in consequence of the reign of terror, the town of Augusta has been depopulated; the citizens in the town and vicinity have fled in all directions, seeking safety as best they could. All industrial operations have ceased. For many miles around Augusta all cotton gins have stopped running, and no person can be seen in the fields. The militia shot down an unarmed and peaceable citizen—Richard Corly—on the 18th. inst., for no other cause than that he attempted to get out of their way upon their approach.

A. C. PICKETT.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

READ STATEMEMENT.

BY PERMISSION, I publish the following receipt and statement of settlement of Policy No 81,927, for $5,000, on the life of Mrs. M. S. Hutchinson. The insurance had not been in force six months at the time of the decease of the insured.

Dr. to cash draft on N. Y.,	$4,993 42
" one note returned	14 00
" interest on note	6 58
Cr. By Policy No. 81,927		$5,000 00
" one dividend		14 00
	$5,142 00	$5,142 00

"Received at Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 18th, 1868, of S. D. Wait, General Agent of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, five thousand one hundred and forty-two dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 81 927 and dividend and I hereby surrender all right, title and interest in the same to said Company.

(signed) JOHN HUTCHINSON, Of Newbern, N. C."

It will be seen by the above although the party had been insured but six months, yet one-half the premium was cancelled by an anticipated dividend. In this staunch old Company, Policies are paid in full, deducting only the interest on notes from last payment until time of death of the assured.

This Company exercises great care in the selection of its risks, and although the Company has been represented in this State nearly two years, and has been doing an extensive business, the above is its first loss. S. D. WAIT, dec-23-dAwtf Gen Agent.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS, FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c. &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.
